1. Elements of the Volkspolizei are at present being trained in the former German military camps in western Silesia. This training is taking place particularly in camps in the voivodship of Zielona Gora, and in the camps located at Guben (Gubin) and Forst (Zasieki), close to the German-Polish border.
2. The training period of Soviet parachute units located in East Germany has been extended. There are about two or three Soviet parachute brigades whose training camps are situated near the Polish-German border, particularly along the Silesian sector of the frontier.
